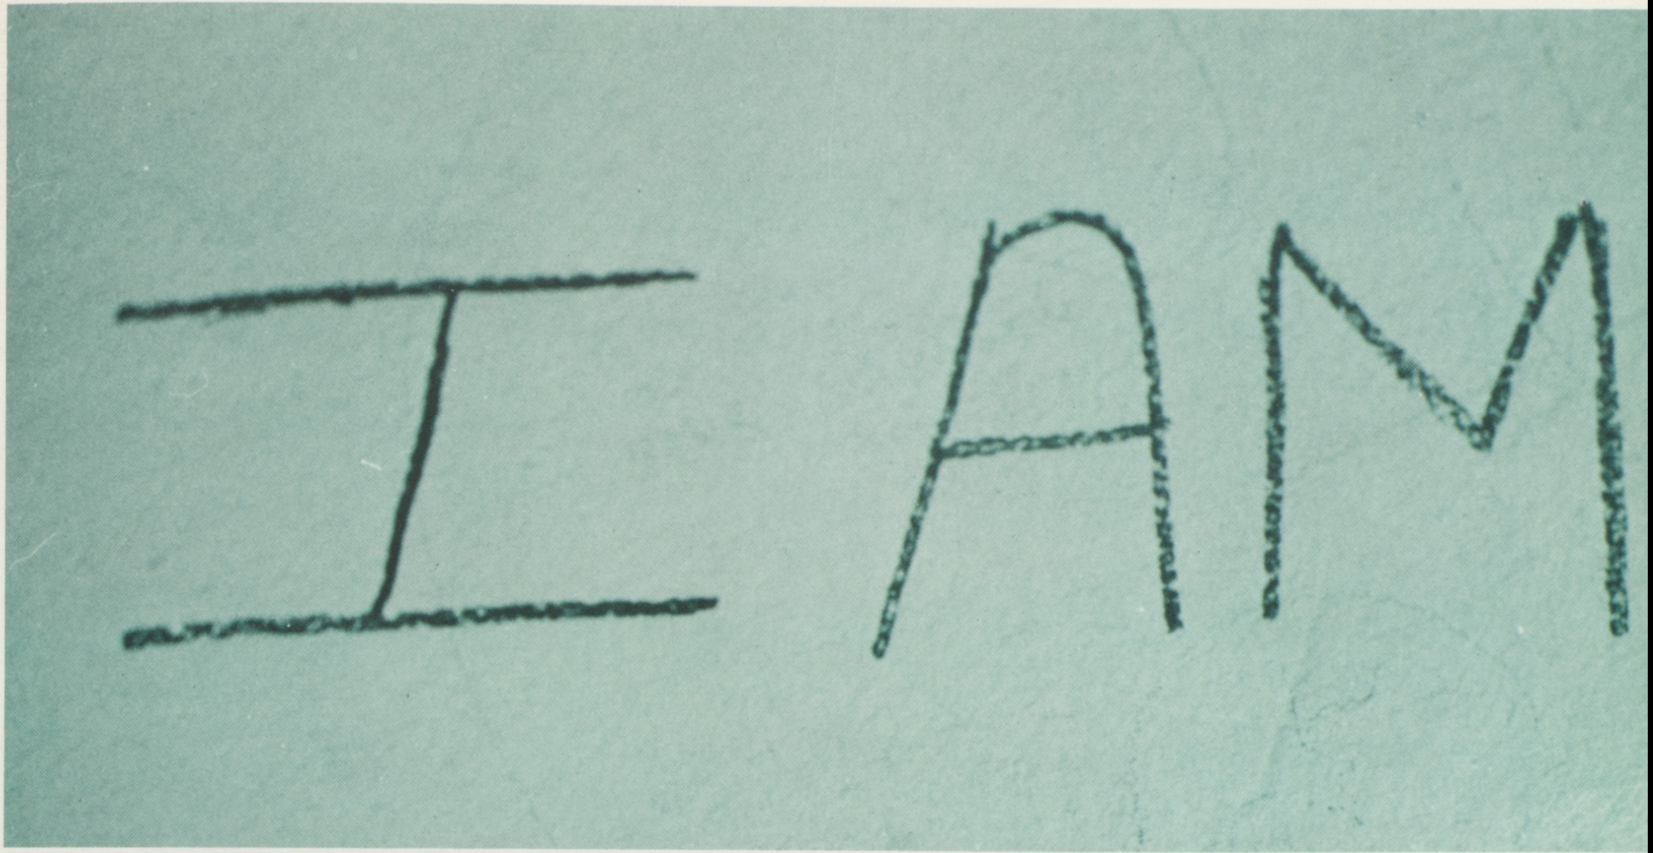
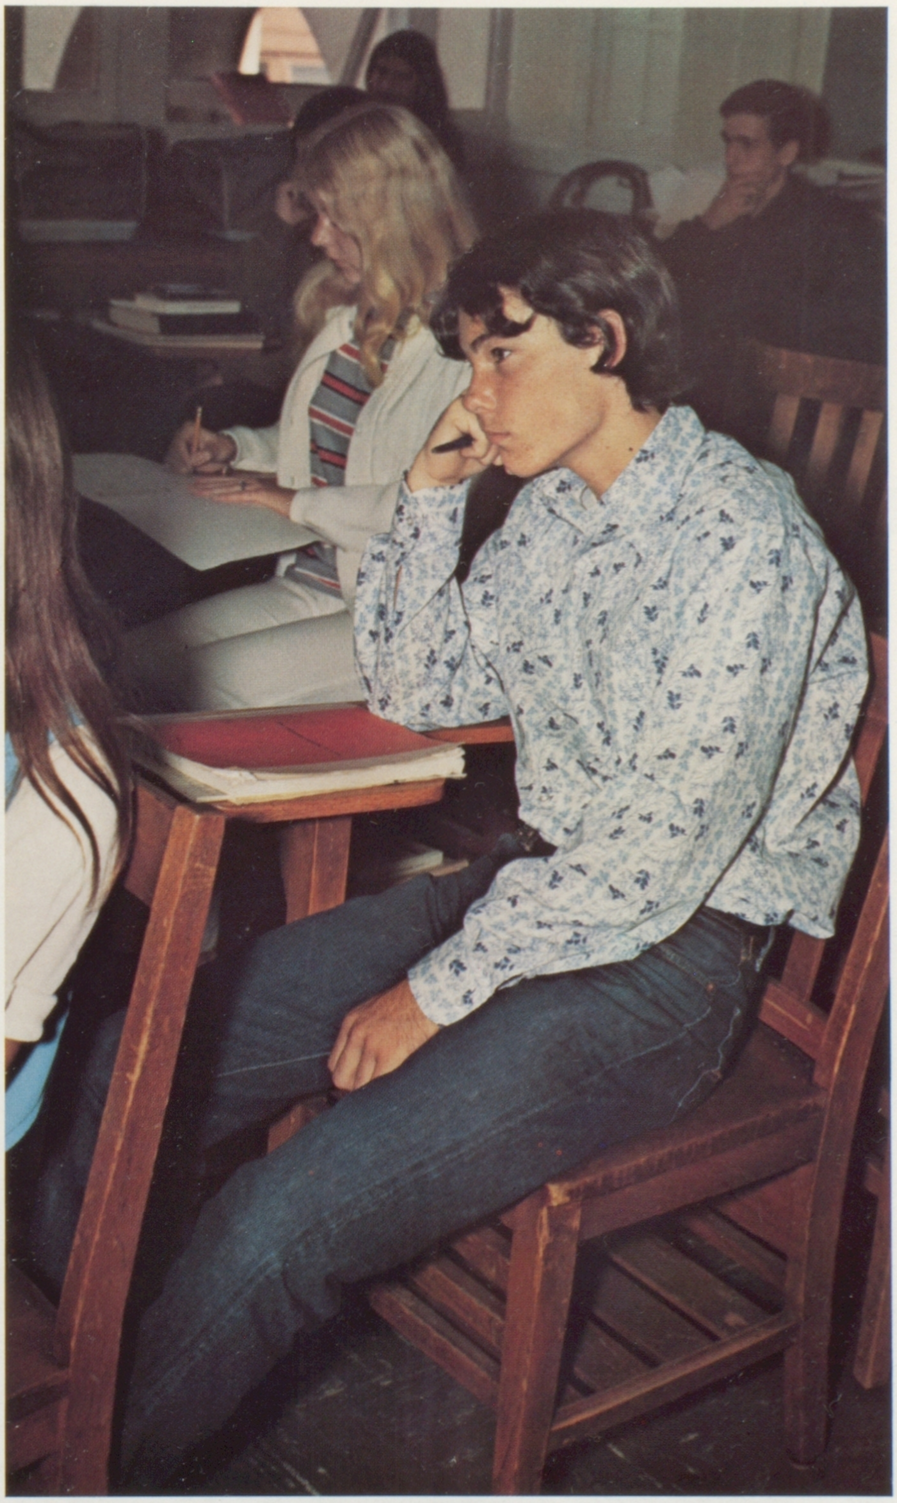
All Quotes by Rod McKuen.

It's the real thing

If You Had Listened Hard Enough
You Might Have Heard
What I Meant to Say.
Nothing.

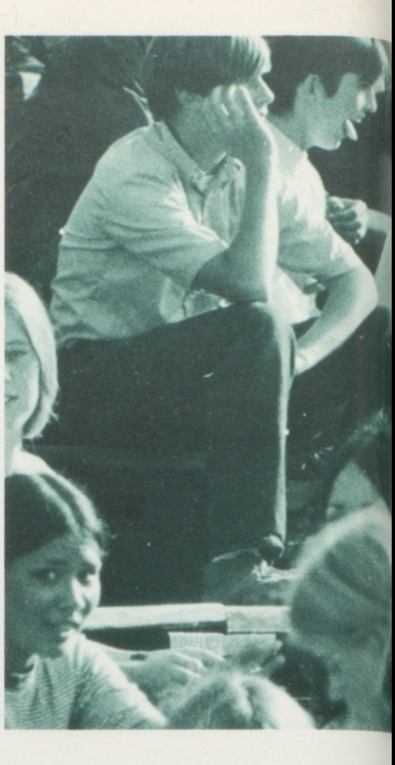


I AM



There Must Be Roads Somewhere Highways I Haven't Found.

I Cannot Speculate On What Our Cluttered Minds Will Save-

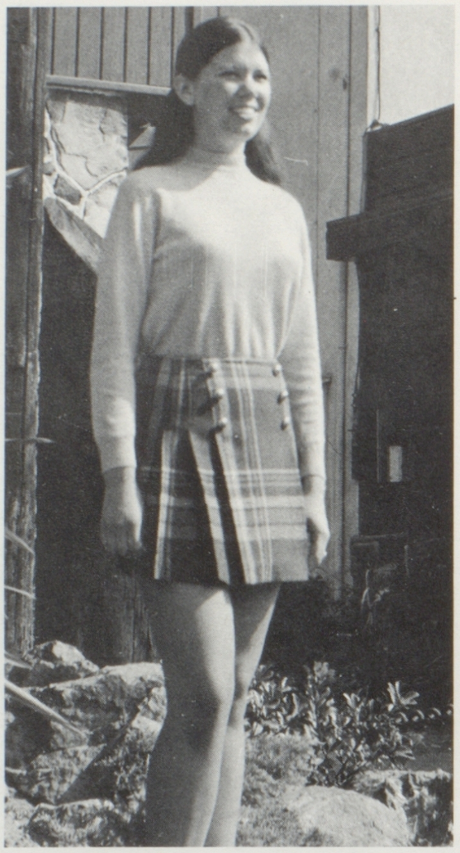


No Misery In Not Being Loved, Only In Not Loving.

We Come Into the World Alone.
We Go Away the Same.
We're Meant to Spend the Interlude
Between in Closeness.

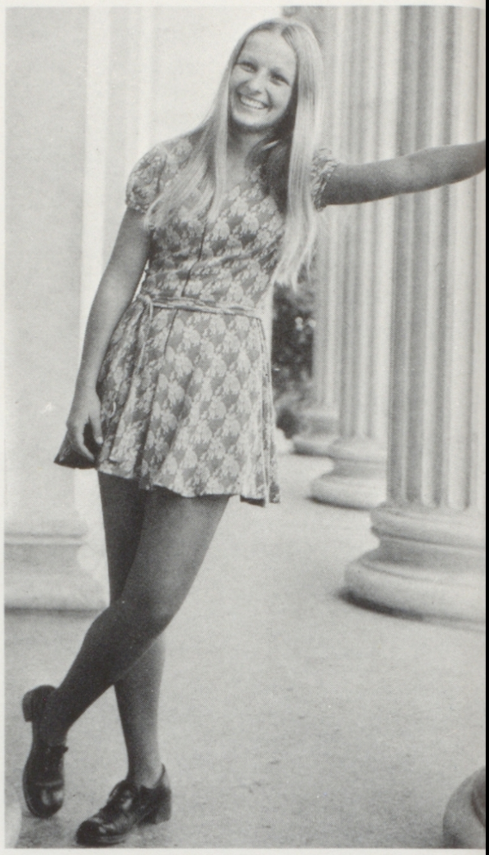
Student Life

Student Government Provides Leadership



Nancy Dederman served as vice-president for the Fall Semester.

Wendy Kapchan filled the position of Recording Secretary for the Fall.



Ann Golonka is the first girl to take position of Financial Secretary.

Lending leadership for the fall semester were Student Body President, Joe Camica and Chief Justice, Mike Bevin.

The fall officers worked hard to create more student involvement and give students more voice in student affairs.

President Camica's cabinet consisted of Nancy Dederman, vice-president, Wendy Kapchan, recording secretary, Ann Golonka, our first girl financial secretary, and Nancy Pulley, head yell-leader.

Issuing justice to the students at AHS is the Student Court. The judges were Randy Pries, Russ Sabatini, Ed Huie, Phil Hanamora, Paul Cobet, and Mike McFann.

Student government plays a very important part in developing students as individuals.

Laura Hynes served as spring vice-president.

Presiding over the student body for the spring semester were President Greg Nielsen, Vice-President Laura Hynes, Recording Secretary Kathy Firpo, Financial Secretary John Funk and Yell-Leader Nancy Jones.

Each officer has his individual duties as well as working as a team. They strive together to bring the student body more united, and deserve a lot of credit for organizing things with what little time they have.

The spring Student Court members included Joe Camicia, Ken Kennedy, Russ Sabitini, Stacey Nichol, and Ed Slintak. Alternates were Doug Hootman and Susan Overstreet. Chief Justice to rule over Student Court was Ed Slintak.

Always in deep thought at Ad-Board meetings, are the members

Speaker Chris Watkins kept the interest of the fall semester Administrative Board during long and early morning meetings which were held on Wednesday in the Student Council room. Plans for the opening dance began during summer meetings.

Gary Childe manager, and Wayne Ibarolle co-manager, arranged for Abel and Cookin Mama to provide the music for the night of Sept. 25.

Other major events of the year were Homecoming Week, Unicef Drive, Sadie Hawkins Dance, and a Walkathon which various students participated in.

Also during the fall semester to keep order in the halls as well as student meetings were Men and Womens Board of Control which was in it self a big job for them to handle.

The spring semester Ad Board dealt with many new and different topics. Subjects discussed and worked on were Educational Fund, Revisions committee, assemblies, Board of Control, student court, student lounge, and some talk about leadership classes. Spring Ad Board was headed by Doug Ratto, speaker, and Mark Caldwell, Nancy Brownson, Gary Childe, and Lisa Hayes assisted.

Consisting of spring Ad Board as well as the regular members were student body officers Greg Nielsen, president, Laura Hynes, Vice President, Cathy Firpo, sec., John Funk, financial, and also adding a sparkle was Nancy Jones, head yell-leader. Also for the year, Ad Board formed new committees to look into new areas which were of much improvement for the students as well as for the school.

Due to a lack of interest on the part of students there was no spring Board of Control.

Girls' Promote Spirit at AHS

Providing spirit during athletic events as well as enjoyment for the student body at meetings and rallies were the Fall 1971 Yell leaders and Pom-pon girls.

Voted by the student body to lead the yells was Nancy Pulley. Her assistants consisted of Liz Chavez, Betsy Parker, Diana Lawrence, Renie Calkins, and alternate Renee Simi.

Renie Richina headed those high-kicking Pom-pon girls, and making up her active line were Mitzi Ikeda, Barbara Zucchi, Judy Ortner, Lyn Janiever, Sue McAfee, and Kathy Salinias; with alternate Jayne Rizzi.

These girls worked very hard, on their routines and kept the spirit high.

During the summer the Yell leaders won the Spirit Stick at Yell leader camp.

Spring Lines Get

Barbara Zucchi, head

The 1972 Spring Pom-pon line consisted of Barbara Zucchi, head, Daphne Palmer, Patty Roberts, Kathy Rourick, Nancy English, Laloie Emmons, Chris Carmichael, and alternate, Leslie English.

The Spring Yell-leaders were Nancy Jones, head, Laura Nelson, Laurie Foye, Cathy Cirmelli, Ann Golonka, and Oliva Elderts, alternate.

This spring, the pom-pon girls and yell-leaders had a bubble-gum sale for spirit week.

Actively supporting the Hornets, the yell-leaders and pom-pon girls attended basketball games, baseball games, swim meets and track meets. Rallies were held weekly in order to promote spirit for these events.

Wendy Kapchan enjoyed being Denny Smulyan's slave during slave day.

This year during Homecoming Week things were a little different. The five candidates found themselves taking part in a wheelbarrow race, an egg toss, an orange passing contest, pushing peanuts across the lawn with their noses, crawling through flour soaking wet, looking for 25 pennies, and a pie-eating contest.

On Thursday, the annual slave auction of student body officers, pom-pon girls, yell leaders, and many other people was held.

Friday was slave day, The masters had the slaves dress-up in crazy costumes and the slaves had to do whatever they were told.

Laura Nelson was crowned queen at half-time of the Alameda-DeAnza football game. Her court consisted of Kathy Salinas, Cathi Sivyer, Renee Richina, and Sherrie Archibald.

This year Alameda High School presented "The Man Who Came to Dinner" as its All-School play. It is a comedy in three acts by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman. The play takes place in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Ernest Stanley in Mesalia, Ohio. The time is present.

The play was directed by Mr. Lloyd Sisler with student director Joy Denyven. Managers were Vicki Kappel and Nadine Cross.

Mrs. Carlton Hanson directed the orchestra with the help of student director Susan Ibarolle.

Seeing as this is the last production that Mr. Sisler is going to be doing, we would like to take the time to congratulate him on the many outstanding performances he has directed during his many years at Alameda High School.

This year Alameda High celebrated the spirit of the Christmas holidays with its 33rd annual Christmas Pageant, "As Eash Man Sees the Light". The Christmas Pageant was written and directed by the dramatics teacher Mr. Lloyd Sisler. Vickie Kappel assisted as student director for the Pageant. Alameda High's dance, drama and music classes co-ordinated in doing the skits, dancing, songs, and pantomimes. Mrs. Maria Molnar directed the dance department. Mrs. Carol Cederleaf directed the singing department.

Accompanying the various scenes and dancers was the orchestra directed by Mr. Carlton Hansen.

Acorn Increases Number of Color Pictures

This year's Acorn staff kept very busy with all its deadlines, rushing here and there to make sure everything was done and in on time.

Heading this year's staff was Gail Stark, student editor. Greg Brown and Ann Golanka were senior section editors. Gary Childe headed the copy staff with Irene Fernandez, Caron Kapellas and Ginger Hodges assisting. Debbie Cardwell was student life editor, Barbara Tkoch, academic life editor, and Mike Thompson, sports editor. Jessie Milligan was classes editor.

Highlighting the Acorn is the increase of the amount of color pictures, which spread throughout the first 48 pages.

Also added this year was the colored end sheets with a border publicizing the year-1972.

Talents Among A.H.S. Students

Mr. Hanson and his string ensemble.

Music has always played a great part at Alameda High to create the moods.

The orchestra and Pep Band directed by Mr. Carlton Hansen and Mr. D. A. Vinciguerra, helped to create those moods.

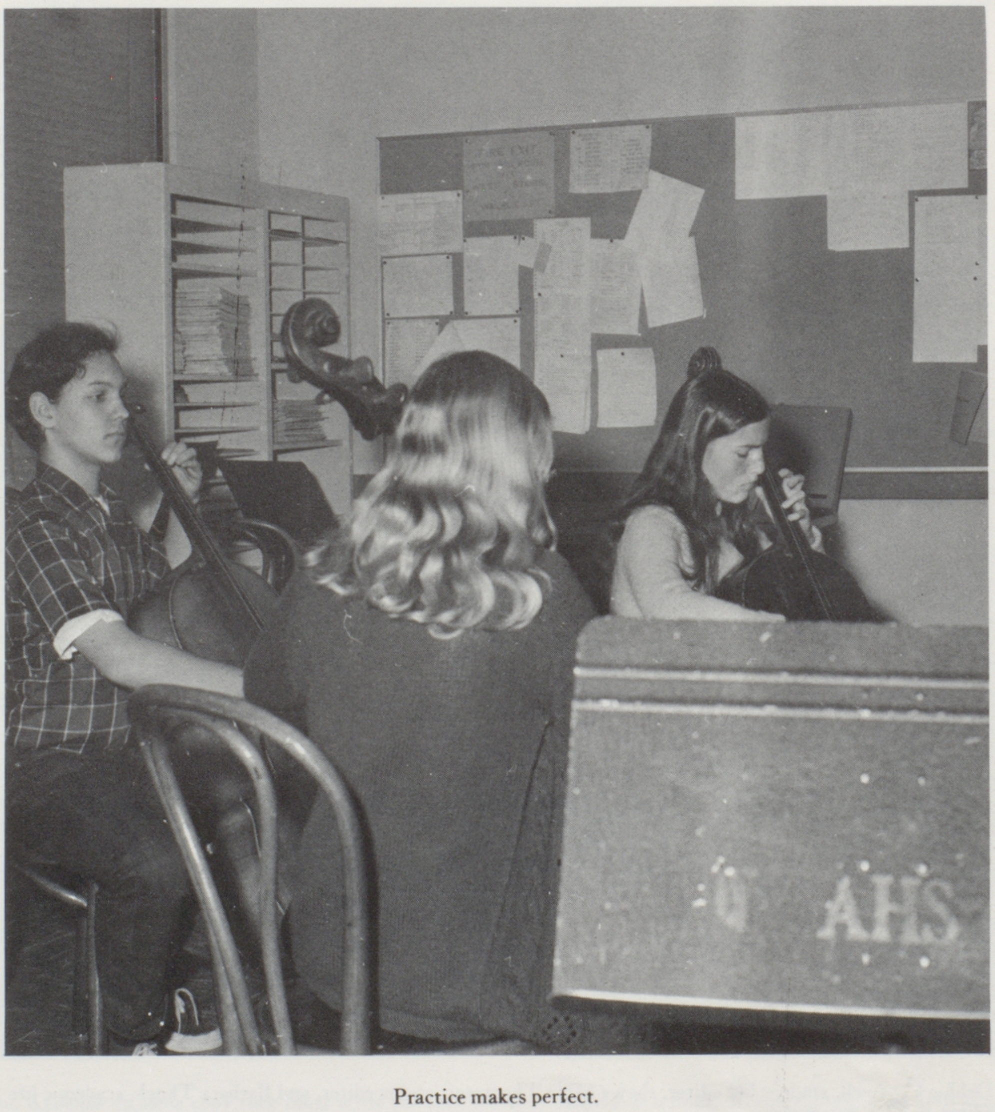
The bands main function was to perform at the student body meetings and at football and basketball games.

The orchestra performed at the Holiday Pageant, Senior Play and the All School Play. The annual Spring Concert was the big event of the year.

This year's student director is Sue Ibarolle.

Many hours of practice goes into the music you hear at every student body meeting, and all the extra activities performed by the orchestra.

Work, work, work!



Practice makes perfect.

Gavotte de Amor held March 3, 1972

Junior Prom Princesses were Renie Richina, Dottie Green, Queen Cindy Alaniz, Yoland Belmares, and Penny Simon.

On March 3rd, with a background setting comparable to a jungle, the class of '73 presented their junior prom "Gavotte de Amor", meaning "dance of love."

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Junior Prom queen, Cindy Alanez. Selected as princesses were Renee Richina, Yolanda Belmares, Dottie Green and Penny Simon.

"Sights and Sounds of San Francisco" provided the entertainment. Serving as manager was Chris Watkins and co-manager was Penny Simon.

Decorations for the prom were under the supervision of a chairman and advisor Mr. David George. The gym was transformed into a wilderness of beautiful flowers and shrubs. Members of the decoration committee spent much time and effort arranging the decorations.

Juniors spent a lot of time and effort decorating the gym.

Meet Student Needs

Emphasis was placed largely upon student interest as the Oak Leaf presses printed newspapers throughout the year. Issues of the school paper became bigger and better as they grew to eight pages.

Heading the Oak Leaf staff were Editor Roland Stephan and faculty advisor Mr. Rick Gamble. The staff included News Editor Shirley Snider, Feature Editor Patty Roberts, Sports Editor Paul Murphy and reporters Doug Ratto and Dave Bayle. The 1971-72 Journalism Class submitted many articles while photographs were taken by Steve Lilley, Angelo Martinez, Jeff Sass, and Bryan Weiss.

Efforts were made to publish a newspaper every two weeks, featuring editorals, opinion polls, and sport scoops.

Vocal Groups Perform Expertly

Mrs. Cederleaf returned this year from a years absence. She travelled all over Africa and other parts of the world.

This years vocal groups have expanded with the freshmen coming to Alameda High.

All the groups took field trips to learn about all the different types of music of today and yesteryear. They went to see musicals, concerts and operas.

They all performed their duties with grace and pride. Their functions were to sing for clubs, and such things as the Spring Concert, Christmas Pageant. We congratulate Alameda High School's great vocal groups.

Pacovsky, Gittens Serve as 71-72 AFS Students

Audrey Hunter and Golda Gittens study in the library.

The students of Alameda High gave a warm welcome to their new American Field Service exchange student Golda Gittens, a native of Barbados. She resided with the Rev. William Hunter family. Her American "sister" was Audrey Hunter.

Here at A.H.S. she has made many friends, and has been active in various clubs.

Ray Pacovsky was our American Field Service student. Her traveled to Norway during the summer. Ray spent seven weeks in Lillehammer and four weeks traveling through Norway.

Ray called his experience "one of the most enjoyable and memorable things I have ever done."

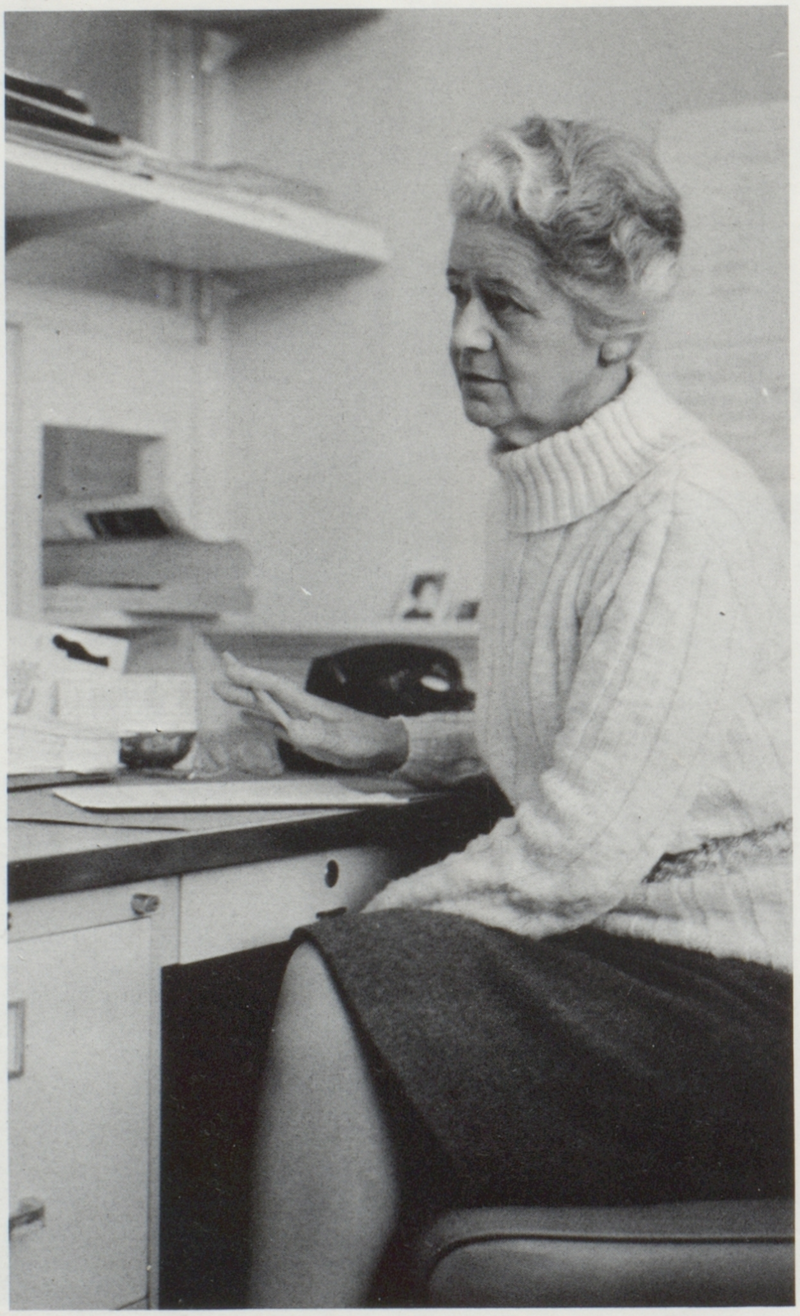
Counselors Give Guidance and Patient

One of the most important departments at any high school is the counseling department. The staff at Alameda High School is headed by Mr. Robert Bartley. His counseling staff consists of Mr. William Thompson, Mrs. Charlotte Howell, Mr. Alan Whyte, Mrs. Louise Tham, and new this year is Miss Clare Carlson. Each of these people must have under their guidance a large number of counselees, each a different age, grade, environment, and personality, each one requiring a different type of understanding and help.



Mrs. Tham seems concerned about a student's problem.

Fitness And Skills

Let's pay attention girls.

With the beginning of a new year, the girls physical education department, which was headed by Miss Diane Davis added various new sports to their yearly activities. Such sports included cycling, which was headed by Miss Arlene Hoshi, and snorkeling which Miss Davis and Mrs. Carol Clymo instructed. Assisting Miss Davis in her work on physical fitness were Miss Mary Curry, Mrs. Maria Molnar, Miss Hoshi and Mrs. Clymo. Numerous sports offered during the year were basketball, volleyball, softball, tennis, golf, archery, badminton, and modern dance. With such a large physical education class, the assistance from various students who aid the instructors helps out tremendously.

This year Mr. Ayres felt that Driver Training should be brought to the attention of students because it is a very serious matter. Driver Training can help you to avoid getting into accidents and to become better drivers in the future. If more people would stop to think about their driving there would be less accidents. The best way to improve your driving is by taking Driver Training and Drvier Education.

Service Staff Provides

Mrs. Hargraves looks as if she disaproves of the food.

Mrs. Royer joyfully fulfills her duties as treasurer.

Valuable Service To Alameda High

Perhaps the busiest people at Alameda High School are the cafeteria workers, custodial crew, and the entire secretarial staff.

This year, the cafeteria is headed by Mrs. Cecil Gannon, trying twice as hard to satisfy the students.

The attendance office secretaries also have an added load by using a new system to cut down on the people cutting classes.

The custodial crew has worked especially hard this year and during the summer to really clean-up the school.

This year we really had a lot of changes made in the school's personnel. In the attendance office we have one new secretary and in the office we have two new secretaries. In the attendance office we have Ninon Conine. In the principal's office we have Mrs. Norma Fisher and Mrs. Stevens.

"Cactus Flower" A Huge Success

"Cactus Flower", was a two act play by Pierre Barillet and Jean-Pierre Credy. With Mr. Lloyd Sisler as director, Steve Roybal as his assistant, Mr. Carlton Hanson leading the orchestra, was unevitably a huge money making success for the class of 1972.

The cast of characters:

Toni Simmons	Cherryl O'Brien
Igor Sullivan	Ray Pacovsky
Stephanie Dickinson	Nancy Jones
Mrs. Dixon Durant	Teresa Chamberlain
Dr. Julian Winston	Christopher Harrity
Harvey Greenfield	Drake Woznick
Senor Arturo Sanchez	Dennis Eichelberger

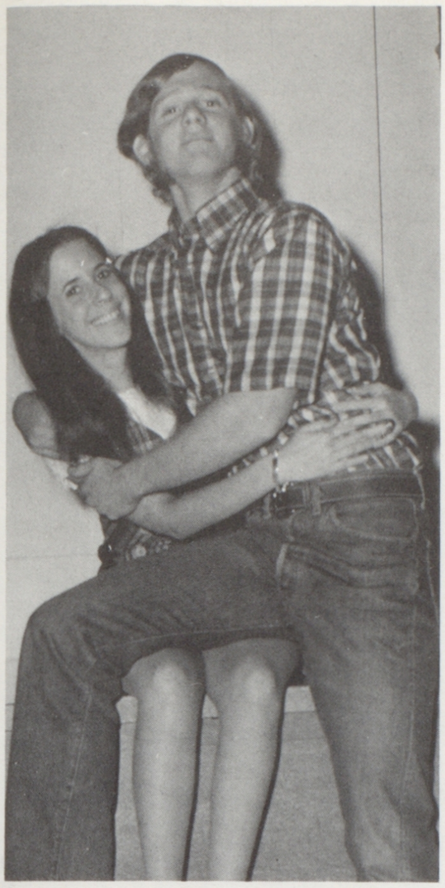
Boticelli's Springtime	Karen Sijersen
Music Lover	Pat Roberts

Tom Baldwin, Debbie Cirmelli, Nadine Cross,
Ann Golonka, Karen Kakligian, Mike Marasco.

The play is a modern day comedy about a modern day situation. To make long things short, it is about a dentist who falls in love with a young girl, then he tells her that he is married and has three children so he doesn't have to marry her. When she finds this out, she tries to commit suicide by gasing herself. Her next door neighbor, who is a writer, smells the gas and comes to her rescue. Eventually they fall in love with each other and the dentist falls in love with his secretary.



Steve Hunter, manager of the play, and Leslie Sosnick, co-manager, ham it up.

"Mirror, mirror on the wall . . . "

ORGANIZATIONS

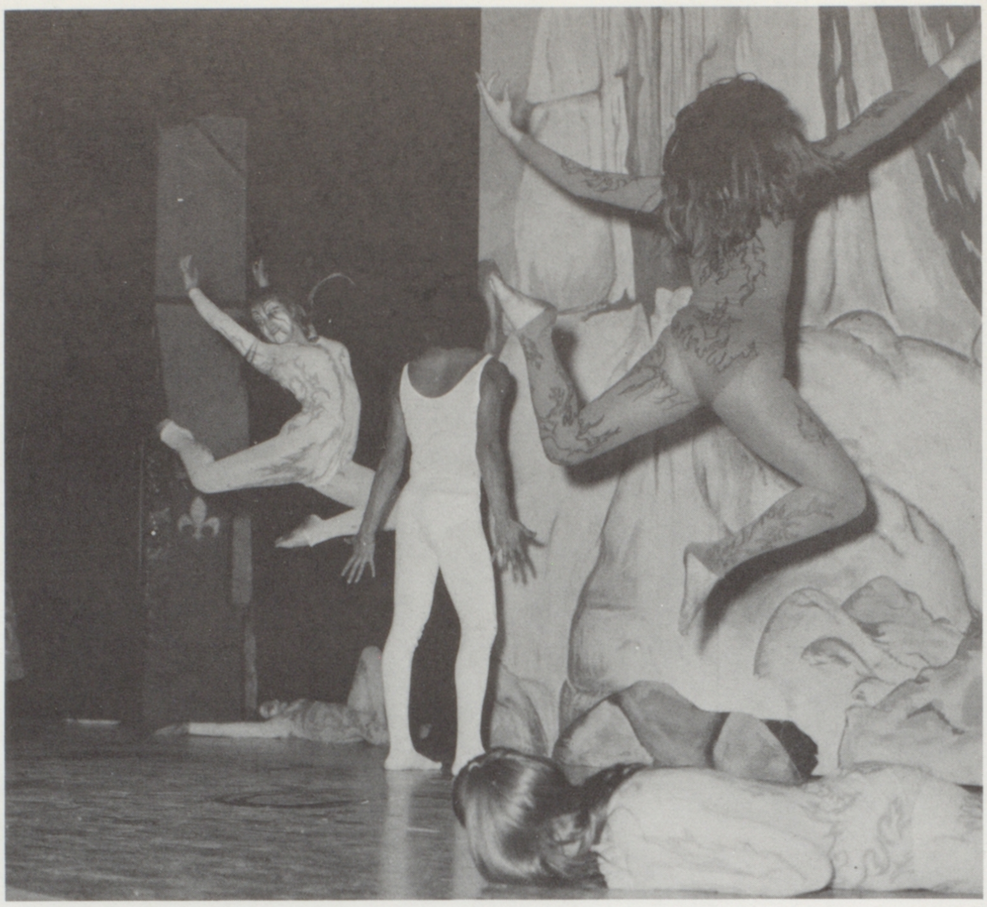
This year, fifty juniors and seniors were enrolled in the 4th period advance dance class. Mrs. Maria Molnar as their dance instructor has been at Alameda High for two years.

The advance dance class participated in many activities, including the Christmas pageant and the Spring Concert.

The dance class is selected by the tryout system when grace, poise, and creativity become important.

As an extra activity members attended several different dance symposiums, where they became acquainted with new ideas in exercises and style taught by professional dancers.

Last year the class became a club, in order that they could have money raising activities.



Dancers were an important part of the Christmas pageant.

Skiers Take on Numerous Slopes

The officers for Ski Club this year were Mark Caldwell president, Larry Kiesler vice-president, Sue Low treasurer, and Melodie Witter, secretary.

The activities held included two car washes and a candy sale. These were all events to raise money.

There were quite a few Ski trips this year, an overnight to Heavenly Valley and some day trips to Alpine Meadows, Squaw Valley, and Bear Valley and the last one to Dodge Ridge.

Dr. Guther Gates heads the club and is its Advisor.

Many new and interested members have joined therefore this year membership increased. To be a member you do not have to know how to ski. Lessons are available.

The ski club officers for the year's ski season were Mark Caldwell, Melodee Witter, Sue Low, and Larry Kiesler.

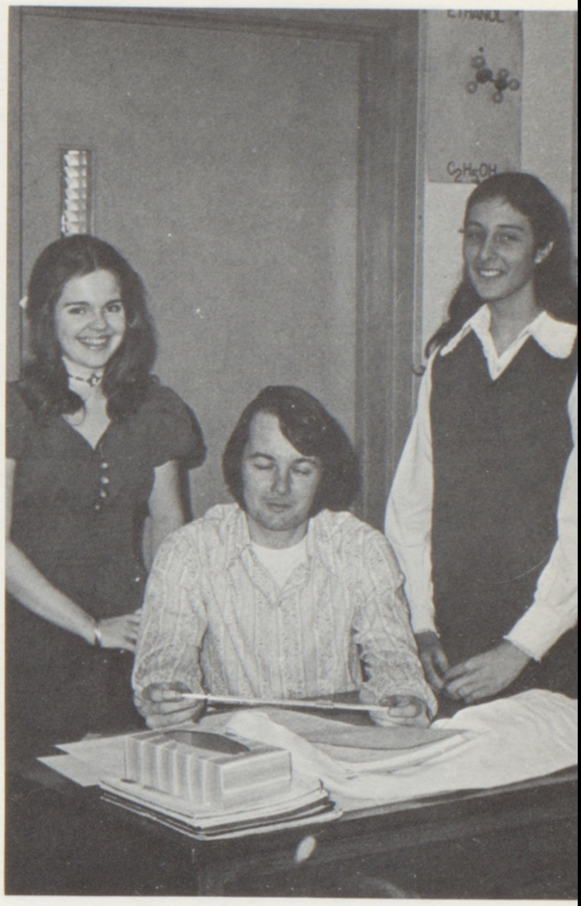
I see you are all hard workers.



Don't turn too red Mr. Fenstermaker.

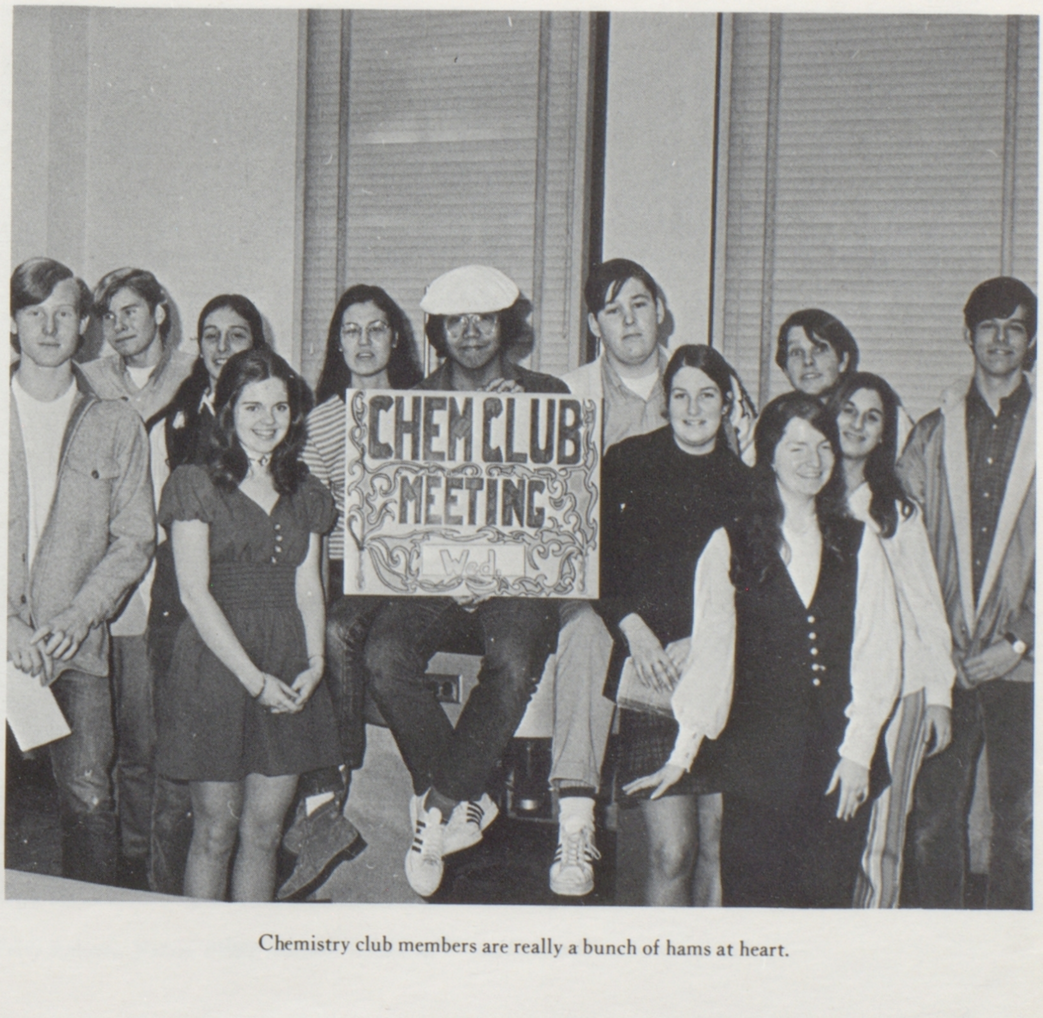
Field Trips Highlight Chem Club's Year

This year Chemistry Club was held together by President Ed Huie; Vice-President Donna Sousa; Treasurer Melissa Hatfield; and teacher sponsor Mr. Fenstermaker.

Some activities they had during the year was a field trip to Standard Oil Co., Lawrence Hall of Science and a car wash.

Members of the club include Jeff Howard, Mary Farrington, Shirley Snider, Donna Sousa, Melissa Hatfield, Ken Kennedy, Jim Lucas, Archie Aquino, Doug Hootman, Mike Buettner, Denise Gerber and Paula Polione.

Chemistry Club was designed to improve the knowledge of chemistry for the students. They have weekly meetings on Wednesday to discuss and experiment with chemistry. It helps the students to have a better understanding of the sciences.



Chemistry club members are really a bunch of hams at heart.

for School Spirit

With the help of Pep Club those girls who would like to be a Pom-pon girl or yell-leader are able to try out. In order to be one, you must have a certain number of points. You can get points by being a member of Pep Club, attending its meetings, and participating in its events. Some of the events include cupcake and sucker sales, homecoming and spirit weeks, and yell-leader and pom-pon clinics.

Nadine Cross was president of Pep Club for the fall semester and Cheryl O'brien was president for the spring. This year Pep Club added some new offices. They were art publicity, Financial chairman and social chairman.

Pep Club officers wore brown, gold and white plaid pant skirts with white blouses and gold vests.

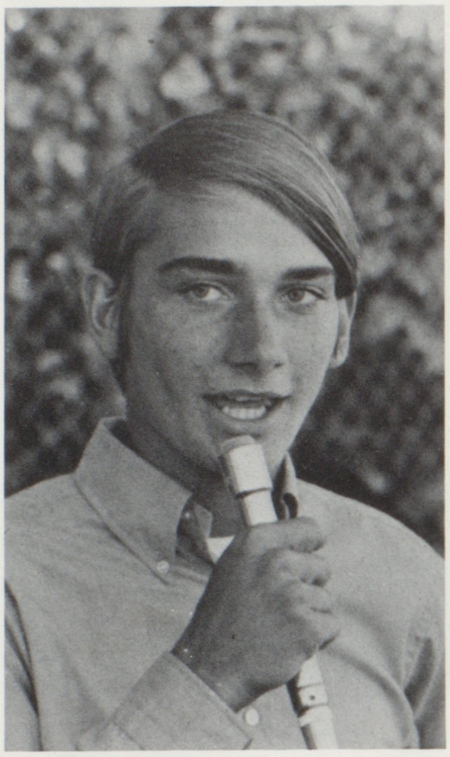
Key Club Serves Community



And away we go!

Smile pretty boys.

The Key Club is a service club which to serve the community and others as well.

Some of the activities it sponsored this year were the canned food drive for needy families at Thanksgiving, and during the Christmas holidays, they went to the Whitton School for the handicapped and gave a Christmas party and they also went to Whitton School on Thanksgiving.

During the year they also sponsored such things as the basketball game between the Oakland Raiders and the Jay-Cees.

The Kiwanis Club is the sponsor for the Key Club. The school advisor is Mr. James Cooper.

It is one of the lesser known of all organizations, but will all of its events, it is going to be one of the best clubs Alameda High has going. We are proud to have it serving the community in so many helpful ways.

And now we present the 1971-72 usherettes for Alameda High School.

Usherettes, Guitarists Strum Along

Guitar Club Ken Kennedy, Mr. Lubkin, Archie Aquino, Mr. Luebbert and Mr. Bertucelli.

One of the lesser known clubs at Alameda High School is the Guitar Club. It is a club that gives people who are interested in the musical instrument a chance to some new ideas and techniques of playing. With the help of teacher-sponsor Mr. Ronald Bertuccelli, this club seems to be growing. To be a member of this club, you don't have to be a great guitar player, just come and learn while you're there.

The usherette club is highly underpublicized, but with the help of manager Cindy Molko and teacher-sponsor Mrs. Pauline Ames they are getting better known all the time.

The usherettes are of a great help to the school. They help people during plays and different school functions.

Honor Athletic Students

The Men's and Women's Block "A" Societies are designed basically for the sports-minded student. The Men's Block "A" is open to the student athlete who has excelled in a particular sport. The Women's Block "A" keeps its members busy with various school activities. Membership is achieved only after 1,200 activity points are accumulated by each member.

Roberta Chladek and Connie Dubbs headed the Women's organization in the fall and spring respectively.

Led by Steve Chavez and advisor Dennis Hennessee. the Men's Society held its annual Block "A" dance and annual member dinner. The dinner is especially designed to "salute" the good sportsmanship of the members of this years faculty basketball squad.

This year, under the direction of LaLoie Emmons, "S" club accomplished many service projects. Helping the club and its 45 members along was Mrs. Johanna Winzenread and Alameda Soroptimist sponsor Miss Barbara Stevenson.

"S" Club is a nonprofit organization which provides service for the community and school. One of the outstanding activities was the traditional freshman reception. This reception helps the new Freshmen meet their Senior sisters and learn more about the school.

So far this year "S" Club has sponsored a Canned Food drive at Thanksgiving, a party for the handicapped at Christmas, a Fashion Show, and a St. Valentine's Day party for the service men at Oak Knoll hospital.

To be in "S" Club you have to have a C average or better. The names are put in a hat and then drawn out. They choose 10 girls from each class.

Interact Aids Vascetomy Clinic

Following up with a new year and planning various school activities was the Interact Club. Under the supervision of Mr. Philip Thormahlen, faculty advisor, and with help from Mr. Dave Fairfield. Highlighting the clubs splendid year, was the Interact dance, held in the A.H.S. gym. To publicize for the dance, Interact provided the Dennis Gyer Band which entertained at Student Body Meeting, and put on a skit and crowned Stu Sanderson as Interact Queen for the February 10th dance. The groups that performed at the dance were Wayne the Harp, formerly Aum, and Ice. Officers were Kevin Kearny, President; Gary Eager, Vice-Pres; Doug Ratto, Recording Sec.; Joe Camicia, Financial Sec; Steve Hunter, Sgt. at Arms; and Steve Chavez, Yell Leader.

Model U.N. members do research on their country.

Active participation by U.N. Clubbers paved the way in understanding world problems.

Members represented various nations at student conferences and discussed feaseable solutions. Numerous resolutions and amendments were authored by this year's team. Alameda performed outstandingly in San Jose and was one of the top competitors at the Berkeley Conference.

United Nations Day, October 24, was recognized by the team as students attended festivities at Oakland Tech. Guest speakers told of their experiences under the direction of the United Nations. Diplomats from Foreign Consulates in San Francisco were invited by the team to express their views to the Consulate.

Model U.N. has gained new members.

Model U.N. members were: Evelyn Robinson, Cindy Stakes, Archie Aquino, Donna Williams, Russ Sabatini, Mike Smith, Rich Avery, Lloyd Newman.

GAA Caters to Sports-minded

Offering an extended sports program for athletically inclined girls is the main function of Alameda High's Girls' Athletic Association.

Activities this year included several Sportsdays, when girls from other high schools in the bay area travel to AHS to participate in interschool competition; and many playdays, during which regularly scheduled activities are set aside, and girls are allowed to compete among friends in any sport they desire.

Other events for the busy GAA members consisted of a bike hike, candy sale, car washes, Father-Daughter night, and a fall ski trip.

Among the officers of GAA was Sue Low who did a great deal of work as fall president. Advisor is Miss Diane Davis.

Chess, Coin Clubs Offer Diversion

Chess Club is a very interesting club, because the members that are in the club have a chance to improve their games during the lunch time and they also have the chance to challenge other schools.

Mr. Dale Fredgren sponsors the Chess club and arranges the meets with the other schools.

The Coin club has been successful with Mr. James Cooper as faculty advisor and the sponsor of Coin club. The Coin club members take trips that were planned to observe famous collections. The members also can compare coins as well as trade them to the other members and to members of the other school Coin clubs.

With two such fine clubs in our school, the students have plenty to do.

Boy, do those coins look good!

Girls Offer a Warm Welcome

Extending a warm welcome to all visitors to Alameda High School is the main function of the Courtesy Board. In recent years the old desk where the faithful courtesy board member sat was taken away. This year it was returned.

Serving as fall president was Sherry Hathaway, Vice-pres. Joy Denevyen, secretary Nancy Monaco, treasurer Barbra Tkoch, and sargeant-at-arms was Judy Mann. The fall uniforms were just gold and white scarfs.

Music Lovers Unite

The orchestra performs once again in full harmony.

Alameda High School's crescendo club is open to any student who is interested in any type of music, but you must be enrolled in some sort of music class.

The officers for this year are Armand Acosta, Ward Spangler, Peter Westminster, Janet Wilcoxson, Cathy McClure, and Mary MacDonnell. They obtain help from Mr. Carlton Hanson and Mr. D.A. Vincigierra.

The members of Crescendo Club come from orchestra, band and vocal classes.

A couple of the big moments in Crescendo Club this year were the Spring Concert and the Winter Concert, featuring all aspects of the music department.

Crescendo Club helps students who are interested in learning about music to better understand and see if it is really what they want.

J.V.'s Finish Unbeaten, Sophs Win One

Tailback Dan Reynolds drives for a big first down against Pacific.

Completing their third undefeated season in the past four years, the Alameda junior varsity football team finished the 1971 season with an 8-0-1 record.

Handling this years coaching duties were coaches Tony Piazza and Mike Kern. Coach Piazza, who was previously the soph-frosh coach was assisted by Mike Kern, who is an AHS Class of 1966 graduate.

After racking up eight straight wins the J.V.'s were unable to hold off a late Encinal rally and were tied 14-14, in the last game of the season.

A few scores from the season were as follows:

Alameda	33	San Ramon	6
Alameda	39	Balboa	18
Alameda	28	Kennedy	0
Alameda	47	DeAnza	16
Alameda	28	Richmond	0

Outstanding players for this years squad include, Dan Reynolds-Tailback, Fullback, Tightend; Todd Wilcox-Tailback; Steve Coustier-Linebacker, Guard; and Carl Plummer-Fullback.

Quarterback for the J.V.'s was Joe Martin, who also had a fine season.

Joe Damele and Dan Reynolds served as Captains for this years undefeated junior varsity team.

Alameda's soph-frosh team, coached by Dan Lufkin and Gary Bystrom improved greatly throughout the season as they finished with their record bearing the price of experience, which cost one win and seven losses.

David French, Tom McKee and John Phillips were elected tri-Captains for this years soph-frosh squad.

Alameda's junior varsity and frosh basketball teams suffered through losing seasons despite some fine individual performances.

Forward Russ Goodman averaged 18 points a game for the J.V.'s. Soph's Bob Rhodes, Dave French, Dave Haber, and Brian Boerman all aided the front line.

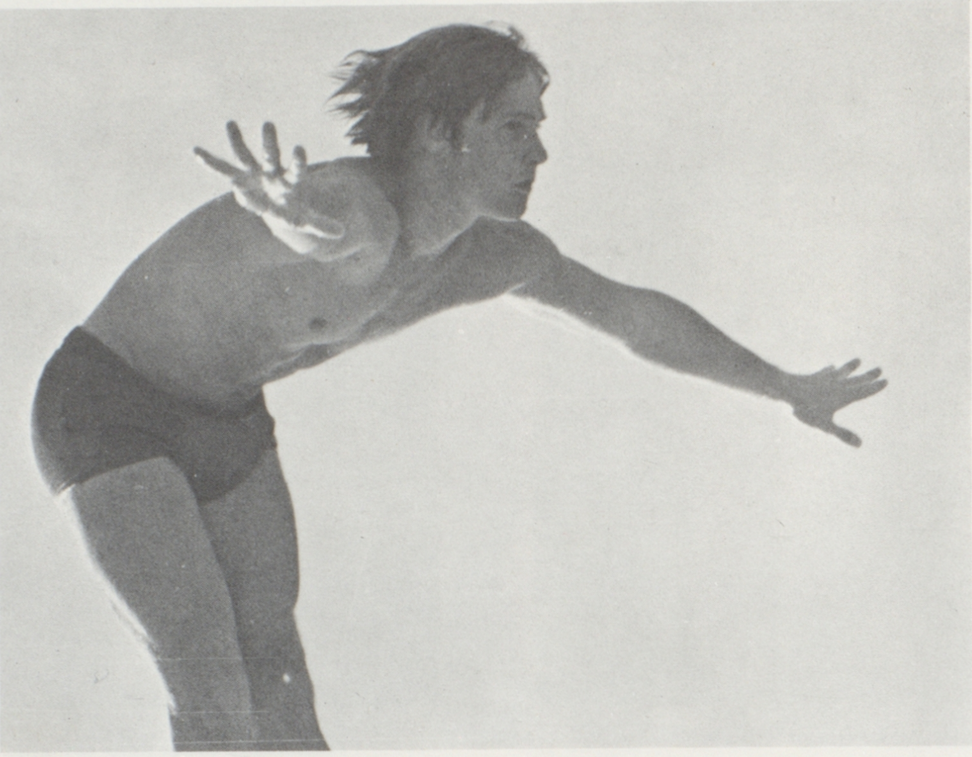
Backcourt standouts included junior Mike Norton, sophs Dave McFann, Terry White and Ernie Obando, and freshman Jack Healy.

The J.V.'s won four games including a one point decision over El Cerrito, along with pre-season wins over Silver Creek, DeLaSalle, and Emery.

The Frosh downed Pacific 31-30 for its lone victory. Guards Jack Healy, Eugene Sonido, and Mark Ironsides showed promise.

Mr. Gary Fenstermaker and Mr. Dan Lufkin coached the junior varsity and frosh respectively.

Swimmers Register 10th Winning Season



Diver Ray Pacovsky soars through the air.

Under the direction of Coach Ash Jones, the Boys Swim team attempted to defend the A.C.A.L. championship for the 10th consecutive year.

Outstanding all season was Bill Ward in the backstroke, Ed Blom, John Jacobs, and Rich Glazier in the breaststroke, and Andy Candelario and Rich Firpo in the butterfly. Other top performances were turned in by Dennis Lopes and Paul Steele in the spring freestyle, Dean Nelson and Aaron Placourakis in the distance freestyle, and Ray Pacovsky and Mark Caldwell in diving.

El Blom and Ray Pacovsky were elected co-captains by their teammates.

Entering this season the swimmers had captured nine straight league championships and several North Coast crowns.

Varsity in Play-Off Struggle

Steve Sorenson beats out an infield single.

Alameda's baseball team compiled its most successful season in many years by scoring five straight victories enroute to an A.C.A.L. playoff berth.

Coach Leroy Bernadou's club was led by two year starters Mark Mckee (catcher), Kevin Kearny (lb), Jim Morse (3b), Gabe Pena (ss, p), Bill Elzig (2b), Steve Chavez (of), and Dan Sanchez (inf., of).

Leading the pitching corps were sophomores Jim Perry and Mark Trujillo, and seniors Gabe Pena and Dan Periera. Included in Perry's victories was a four-hit 3-0 shutout over rival St. Joseph and a league opening 4-2 decision of Kennedy of Richmond.

Trujillo made his varsity debut with a six-hit 5-4 win over Hayward League champion Sunset.

Heading the batting attack was Kearney, who led the team in game winning hits, Mckee and Morse. Mckee showed the ability to hit to all fields with consistency. Morse came up with many clutch hits including a game winning two-run homer against Kennedy.

Junior Russ Sabatini made his presence felt early to nail down a starting spot in the outfield, and senior steve Sorenson played a majority of the time in left field as well as doing some relief pitching.

Frosh Enter New League

Alameda's J.V. baseball team dominated its opponents early by scoring runs in bunches and getting near perfect pitching.

The Hornets blasted Mission 4-0, St. Elizabeth 9-4, St. Joseph 10-3, and Kennedy of Richmond 10-2. Also highlighting the season were wins over Encinal, Berkeley, San Leandro, and Pacific.

Outstanding hurlers included junior Mickey Apodaca, and sophs Terry White, Bob Rhodes.

Hitting proved to be a strength with the likes of Chris Pickard, Doug Ratto, Brian Nielson, Kevin Merritt, Dave Young, Ashley Crooker, and Ron Sonido.

Outstanding defensive players were third basemen Craig Liguillo, shortstops Terry Smith and Don Ratto, second sackers Nielson and Delbert Laviolette, and first basemen Doug Ratto and Merritt.

Ed Angles frosh team played one of the toughest schedules ever as they competed in a new Frosh league with Dublin, DeLaSalle, John Muir, Encinal, Berkeley (West Campus), Moreau, and Amador.

Defense and pitching was good, but lack of hitting proved costly.

Top pitchers included Eugene Sonido, Jesse Vasquez, and Dave Munoz. Mark Ironside turned in a good year as the teams number one catcher.

J.V. first baseman Kevin Merritt records the final out in win over St. Elizabeth.

Frosh pitcher Jessie Vasquez delivers a pitch against Dublin.

Track Team Shows Distance Strength

Paul Berlin takes the lead in hurdles.

Alameda's Varsity Track team, starting the season with various injuries, came right back and proved that the Hornet greatness was not lost.

Behind the fine distance running of Angelo Martinez, Bob Immethun, Mike Norton, Pete Ryan and Barry Smith, the Hornets were very strong.

In the pole vault, Chris Watson proved himself, as he out-vaulted several top athletes during league competition.

Carrying the Hornet weight department were, Carl Plummer, Ken Kruichak, Mark Watson, Rick Stenberg, and Mark Huffman, as they remained tough throughout the entire season.

Sprinters for the 1972 season were, Todd Wilcox, Jim Milne and Lee Reynolds, all who had a fine year after they broke out of the pre-league injuries, which kept them from being at full strength during the beginning of the season.

Leading the hurdlers this year was Paul Berlin, who after he got rid of his case of shin splints, had an exceptional year, both in the high hurdles and the low hurdles. Alameda, without the services of an injured Wayne Keddy, remained strong in the hurdles.

B's Prepare for Varsity Competition

Duncan Haffner's face reflects the tension of competition.

Alameda's "B" Track team, on which the success of next years Varsity lies, completed another fine season, with vast improvement coming in all events.

Led by the strong weightmen, the Hornets were always guaranteed a full 100% effort each time the Hornets faced an opponent.

Weightmen for Alameda this year included, Larry Plummer, Don Strang, Mark Bonds, Mark Berlin, and Dave Miller.

"B" distance men rotating from the Mile to the 2 Mile included, Paul Breitkopf, Jim Ortez, John Warren, Steve Imura, and Norman Jensen.

Sprinters and middle distance men also completed another fine year.

Among these were, Dan Kysor, Chris Vinluan, Mike Rainey, and Ed Pineo.

Hurdlers and Vaulters for 1972 were, John Diola, and Dave Haber, and Jack Healy.

Setting a new school record in the "B" Triple Jump was Dickson Schneider, as he jumped 40' 2".

Alameda's Varsity Golf team dominated league foes for the fourth straight year by winning the A.C.A.L. title over four different courses and 72 holes.

Under the coaching of Mr. Pearson the Hornet "swingers" completed the season unbeaten in dual matches and were rated as one of the top five teams in northern California.

Senior John Funk and juniors Mark Merrigan, Greg Schweitzer, David May, Mike Sanchez, John Purcell, and freshman Doug Poole stroked their way to the top with consistent play.

Merrigan won all-A.C.A.L. honors for the second straight year. He was number one on the team throughout the season. Funk, the only senior on the team, played number two behind Merrigan and was outstanding all season. Schweitzer, May and Sanchez were all lettermen as sophs and the experience enabled them to maintain consistency.

Netters Place High in A.C.A.L.

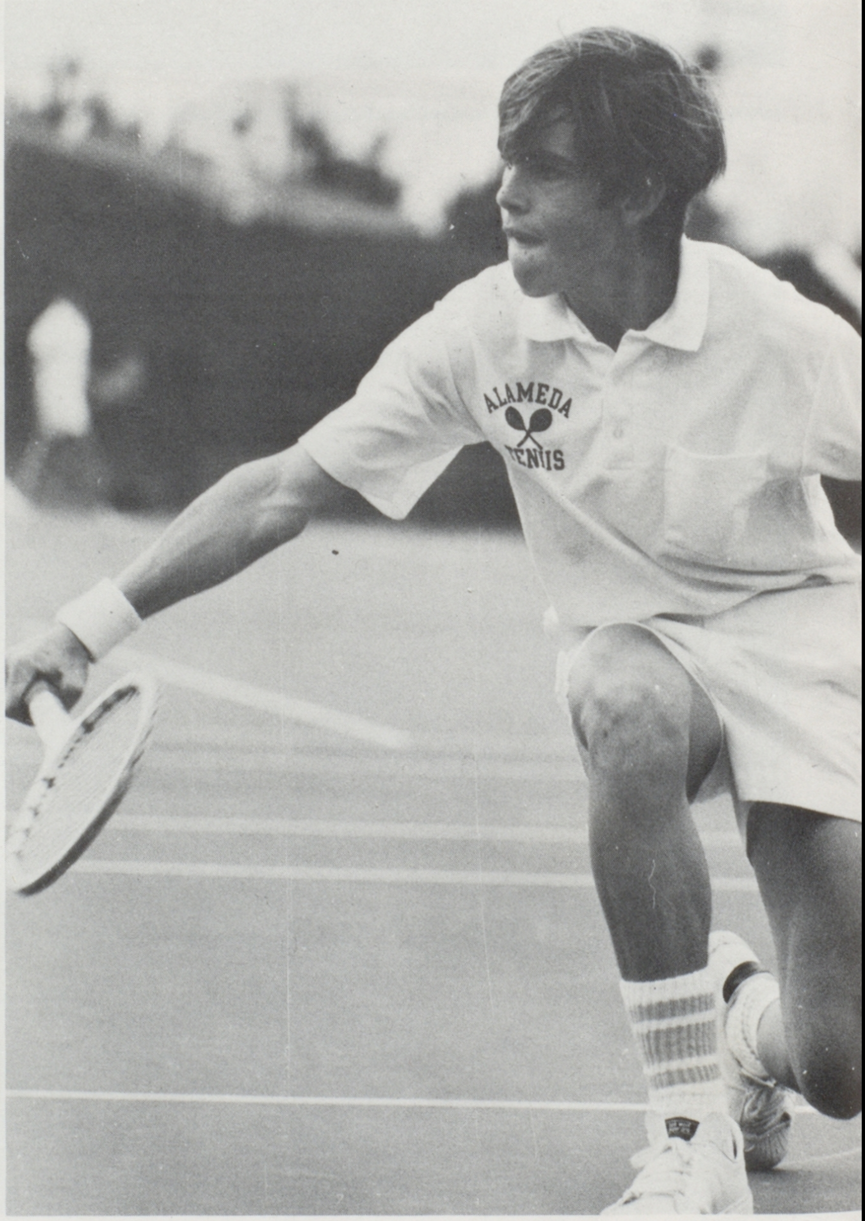
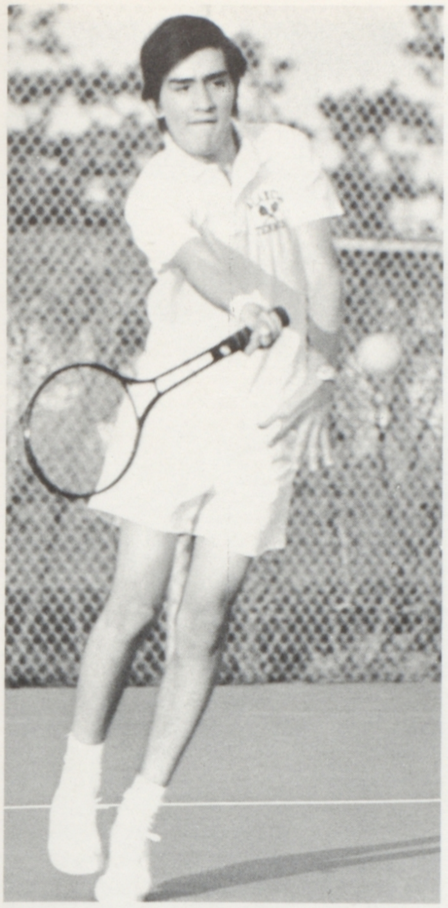
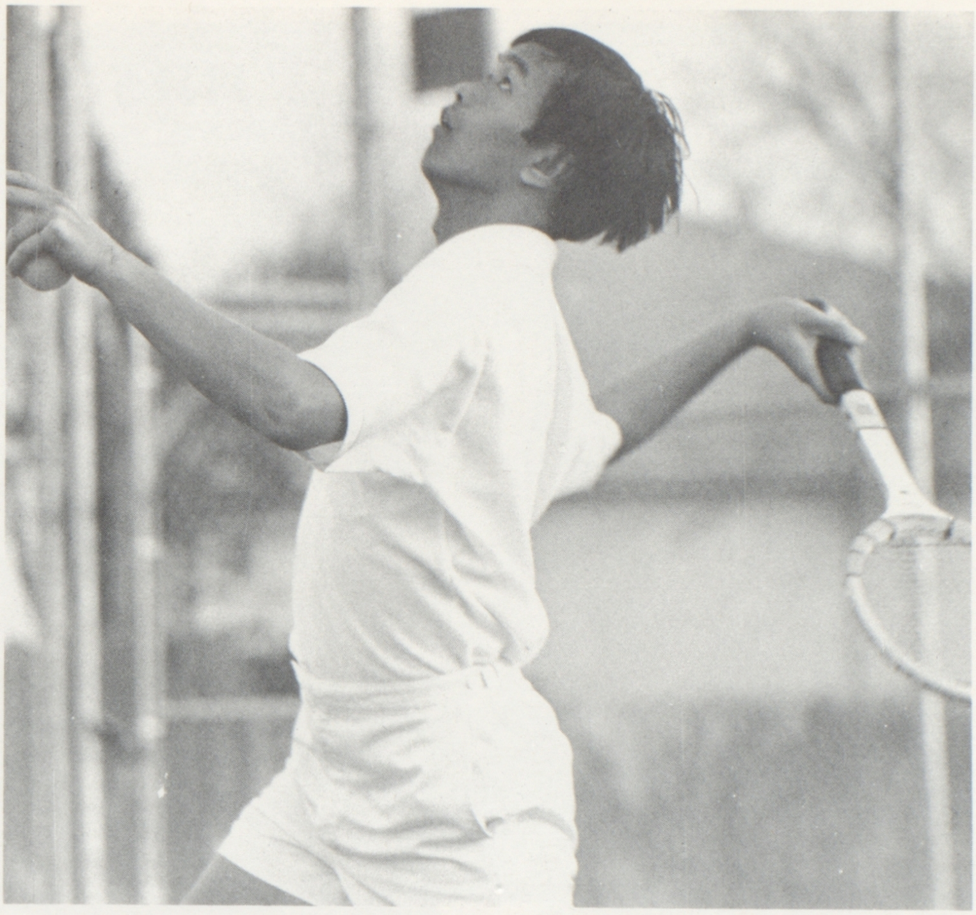
Bob Lack volleys against Los Altos.



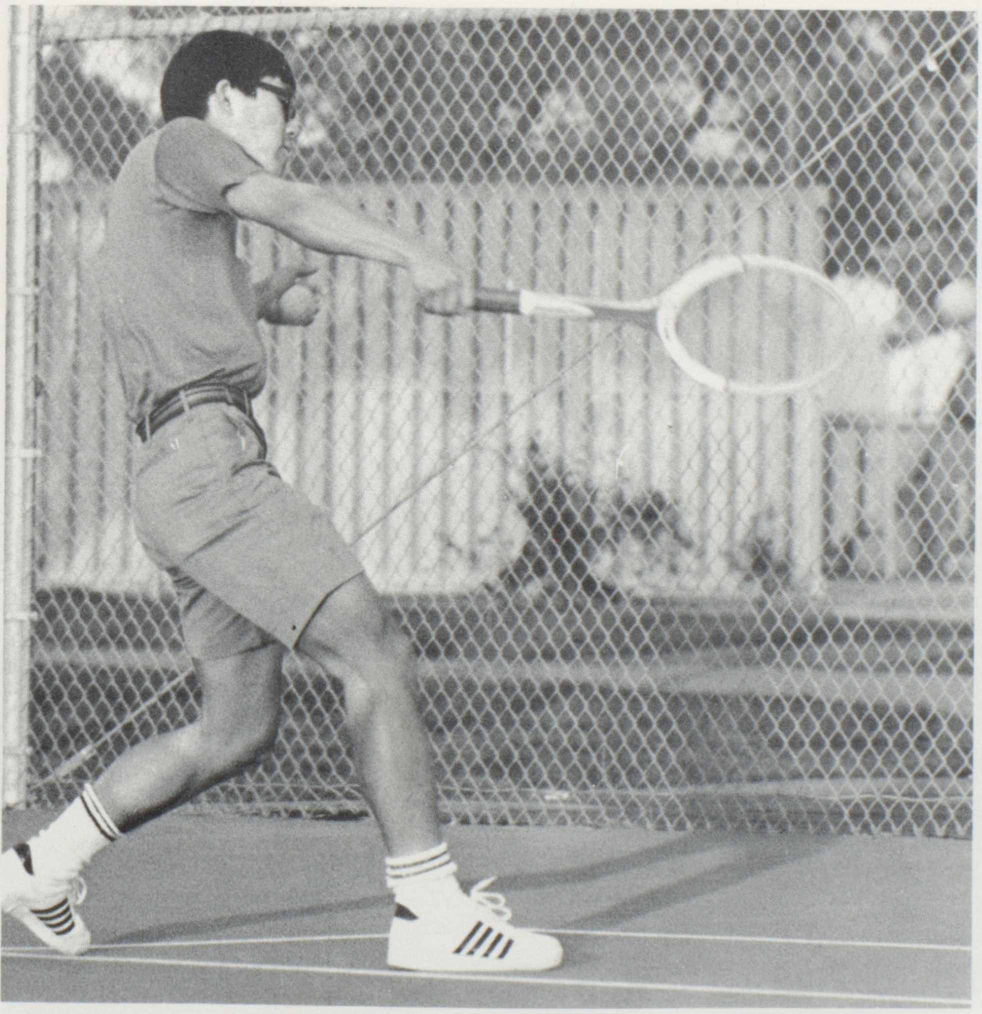
Outstanding soph Ron Lucky delivers a backhand.



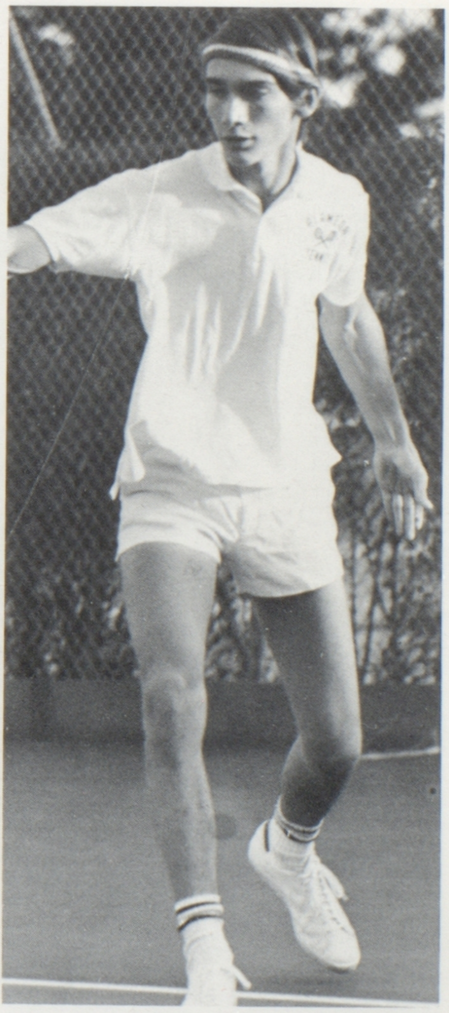
Armand Acosta returns a tough shot against Encinal.



Ed Huie has to reach high to return a hard serve.

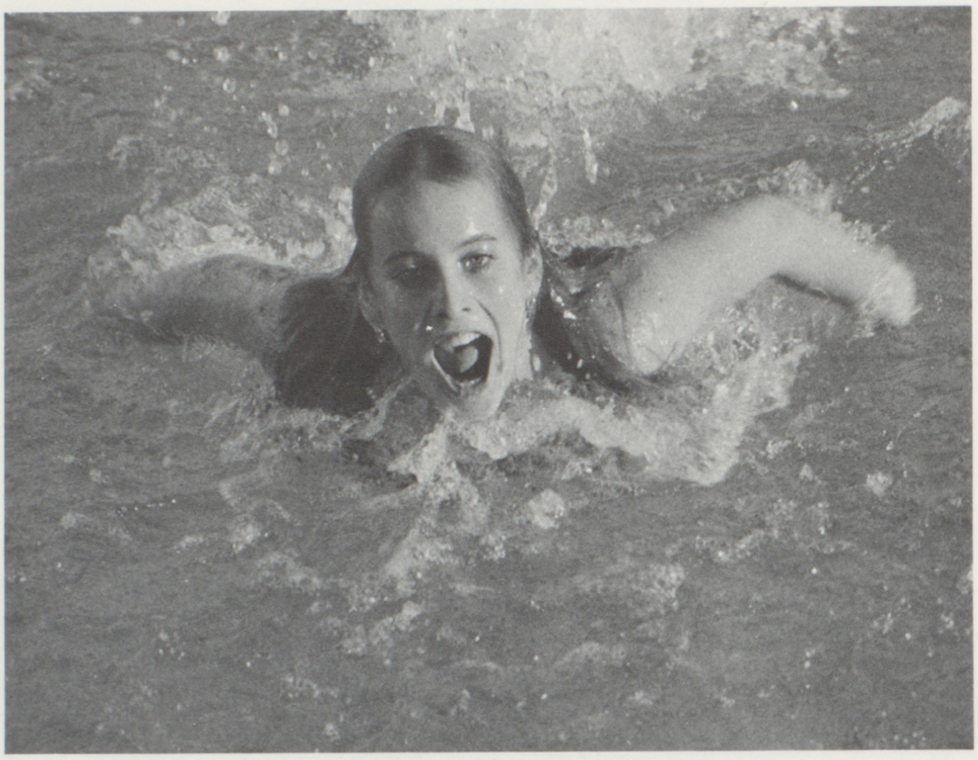


Backhanding is a hard job as Philip Hanamura can surely see.



Randy Pries steps forward to return a ball to score.

Girls Finish 9-1



Laura Nelson improves her breast, stroke that is.

This year's Swim Team, coached by Miss Mary Curry, has done a great job.

Our swim team did a great deal of work, and showed the usual school spirit. Some of the star people include: Rene Dickerson, Carol Glazier, Janet Gulbransen, Linda King, Betty Murray, Desiree Nava, Ginger Nava, Nancy Nelson, and Sue Santel.

Some of these girls broke school records in various events, such as butterfly, freestyle, and backstroke. Out of nine meets the girls won eight, losing only one.

The 1971-1972 Girls' Swim Team coached by Miss Mary Curry.

Carol Glazier practices the breast stroke.

Carol Molnar perfects her stroke.

Desiree Nava comes up for air.

Gymnasts Win 8 of 10 Meets

Make a wish.

The Gymnastics Team has become one of the bigger winners at Alameda High by posting an 8-2 season mark.

The membership of this team has grown in size from last year's 14 members to a grand total of 27 members.

To join the team you must be in excellent physical condition and you must also have a complete physical.

Under the direction of Mrs. Carol Clymo, they were successful, due to many hours of practice and dedication.

The team got new uniforms this year, but they had to send them back. They also got a new balance beam.

Lynn Thomson and Marilyn Eichelberger made it to the Elite Meet this year.

Gymnastics team members radiate a sense of beauty, poise, style, and grace. First row: Marilyn Eichelberger, Susan Stich, Lynn Thomson. Second row: Betty Ryder, Nancy Cooke, Julie Reynolds, Connie Espinoza, Nancy Nelson, Carrie Perez, Wendy Gengrich, Judy Broughton. Third row: Vicki Block, Liz Sevenson, Lea Buherkampe, Diane Echerghen, Lina King, Kathy Bellas, Lynn Elam, Pattie Thomas. Fourth row: Vicki Johnson, Caron Kapellas, Maggie Naylor, Linda Stich, Dayle Farina, Kathy Laramie, Carol Glazier.

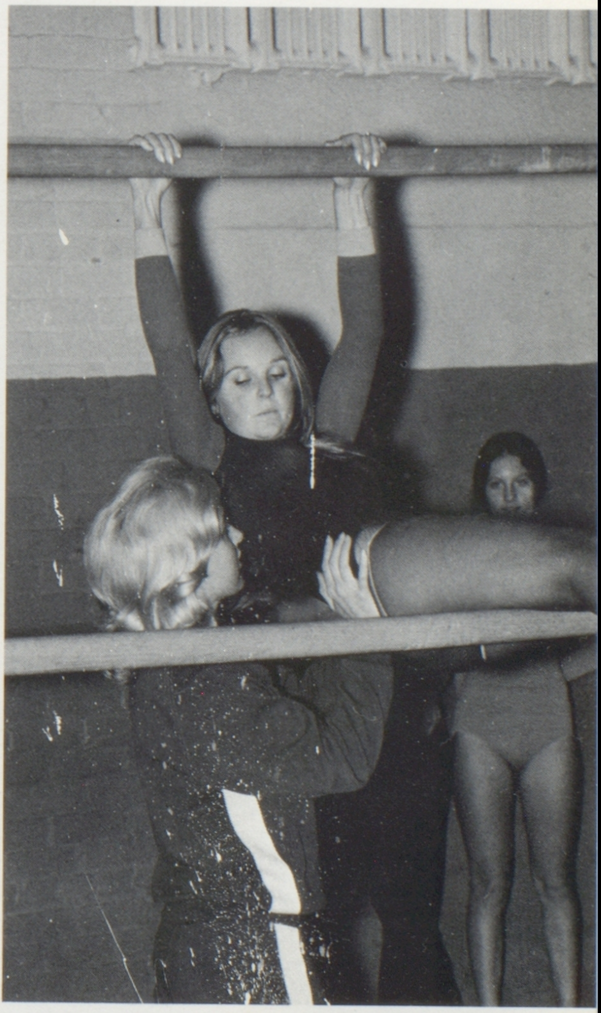
Make a wish . . . . .

Vicki Block poses precariously on the balance beam, with Carrie Perez and Lynn Elam standing by to break her fall.



"Yo ho, heave ho!" Coach Carol Clymo spots gymnast doing a death-defying move on the bars.

Class

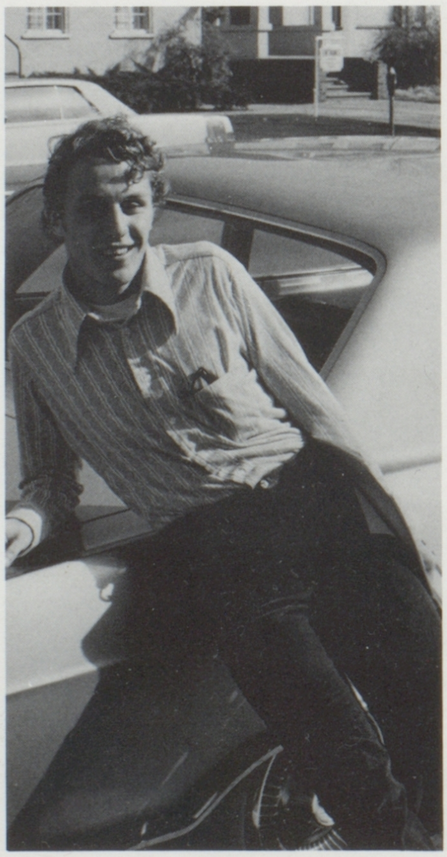
If working together and earning money proves how great a class can be then the Sophomore class has earned it.

There were various sales held throughout the year to raise money and indeed the sophomores did raise money. Headed by class advisor Mr. Lochner.



President for the 1972 spring semester was Dan Kysor.

Shoreview Condominium homes on Shore Line Drive in Alameda

Oakcreek apartments on Oak Grove Road in Concord

Development can be beautiful

...and we're proving it.

Doric is dedicated to creating a total environment for good living. That's why the majority of our communities are water-oriented with lakes, ponds, flowing streams, mature trees and specimen shrubbery. We're aware of our social responsibilities as developers to improve, not abuse, the land. To this end we are committed, as we keep pace with the ever-increasing housing needs of California.

Looking for a great home? Or a great developer? Look to Doric.
